SPENCE COOPER,

The New York World alleges that a Kentucky woman brought suit recently against a railroad for killing her horse and husband. She got $150 for the horse and one cent for the husband.

In a small town in South Dakota the three saloons are owned controlled and personally managed by the Mayor, Marshal and Clerk, respectively, and citizens not holding office are not encouraged to enter this branch of trade.

A Chicago clergyman who recently called upon a young widow to condole with her upon the loss of her husband placed considerable emphasis upon the proposition that the separation was merely temporal and painted in vivid colors the happiness of friends reunited after death. When he stopped for breath the sorrowing one heaved a deep sigh and quietly remarked: "Well, I suppose his first wife has got him again then."

New Railroad.

A special from Lexington says: Work will soon begin on the Ohio & Kentucky railroad, which will take up the terminus of the L. & E. road at Jackson and push on the great coal fields of Eastern Kentucky.

The road is to be projected by New York capital, and the L. & E. has a contract to operate it when it shall have been completed. The road will cover a distance of twenty-seven miles. The terminus of the new road will be Caney Creek, Morgan county, and will tap the rich coal fields of Morgan and Wolf counties. These are the two richest coal counties in Kentucky. A very fine quality of coking coal abounds in these two counties. American Coal Company of New York, William De L. Walbridge as president, is thought to be behind the scheme to push the L. & E. extension into the Morgan county coal field. The road will be known as the Ohio & Kentucky.

Value of Burdock.

American farmers are wont to look upon burdock as a useless weed and a general nuisance but it appears that the Japanese regard it as a valuable food, boiling the tender shoots with beans, using the roots for soup and the young leaves for greens. The annual value of the burdock crop to Japan is $400,000. Here is a pointer for the American farmer.—Forest and Stream.

Experience

Teaches us much

The wise and prudent man profiteth by the experience of others. We have but one way to judge the future and that is by the past, and we should profit by our mistakes, and be guided by the lamp of experience. Experience teaches all that quick cash sales and small profits is the modern way of conducting a successful business. I do business in this way, which makes it to the buyers interest to see me when needing any thing in General Merchandise.

Stabbed his Assailant.

A report from Irvine says that John Park, the 17-year old son of ex-county Judge W. W. Park, while returning home from Irvine one night last week, was stopped by a highwayman who demanded his money. Young Park pretended to comply, but instead of his pocket-book drew his knife and stabbed his unknown assailant, who fell with the exclamation, "You have killed." A pool of blood was found on the spot the next morning, but the would be robber had escaped. The affair is shrouded in mystery.—Richmond Register.

Editors, as rule, are kind-hearted and liberal, says the Elkton Times. An exchange tells of a subscriber to a certain paper who died and left fourteen years' subscription unpaid. The Meade Messenger says no reports of a wonderful strawberry yield will beat the two farmers, one of whom realized $7.90 on seven acres of berries, and another $390 on two acres of fruit. When it is remembered that the strawberry crop requires but two or three weeks' time per year to make and market the crop, it will be seen that the strawberries are a wonderfully profitable fruit to handle.

The present population of the Hawaiian islands is estimated at 105,000, comprising 10,000 English-speaking whites, 15,000 white Portuguese, 30,000 Hawaiians, 10,000 half whites, 15,000 Chinese and 25,000 Japanese.

In 1896 there were 10,652 murders committed in the United States, but there were only 122 legal executions. Only one murderer in 87 paid the penalty for his crime. The public took vengeance into its own hand and lynched in the same year 131 persons.

The Augusta Chronicle says it has become the latest fad for the young single men to be trustees of the country schools. For instance, a young fellow has a maiden with whom he connects his future destiny, and the young fellow endeavors to make himself solid by becoming a member of the school board and using his best efforts to get his adored the school. What a change will have come over the spirit of the times when the school trustee will be the young gallant at whose shrine the pretty school marm pays homage.

The effort of certain papers to lay the blame of toll-gate raiding on Democrats and the Chicago platform is silly. We have it from a reliable source that all the raiders in Bath county, who have been positively identified, are Republicans. But that cuts no figure. We do not charge this lawlessness as the result of Republicanism and the St. Louis platform, but it is a point that should be considered by the papers which have been laying the blame to the Democratic party.—Sentinel Democrat.

Careful estimates show that nearly one-half cent a pound profit is given to the trust on every pound of sugar refined—a profit which means tens of millions of dollars. Such a duty assures for it as great a power over the consumer as it now enjoys over the producer, and no single duty in the senate measure requires a fuller explanation of the motives leading to it.—Harpers Weekly.
